How many times can we receive “THE HOLY EUCHARIST” per day?
What requirements do we need to do before we receive Holy Communion?

We can receive twice “Holy Communion on the same day (Include these references from the Church's Code of Canon Law N.B. #917 ~PTJ).

Can. 916: A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to celebrate Mass or receive the Body of the Lord without previous sacramental confession unless there is a grave reason and there is no opportunity to confess; in this case the person is to remember the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition which includes the resolution of confession as soon as possible.

Can. 917: A person who has already received the Most Holy Eucharist can receive it a second time on the same day only within another Mass in which the person participates. (Continue next page)

PARISH NEWS

(Continue...)

Can. 919: §1. A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before Holy Communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine.

§3. The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour.

Can. 920: §1. After being initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, each of the faithful is obliged to receive Holy Communion at least once a year.

§2. This precept must be fulfilled during the Easter season. (a.k.a. Easter Duty)

What do we need to know about Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation?

Why do we need to attend Sunday Mass?

“The Sunday celebration of the Lord's Day and his Eucharist is at the heart of the Church's life. "Sunday is the day on which the paschal mystery is celebrated in light of the apostolic tradition and is to be observed as the foremost holy day of obligation in the universal Church." (CCC#2177a)

What are other holy days of obligation requiring us as believers to attend?

"Also to be observed are the day of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Epiphany, the Ascension of Christ, the feast of the Body and Blood of Christi, the feast of Mary the Mother of God, her Immaculate Conception, her Assumption, the feast of Saint Joseph, the feast of the Apostles Saints Peter and Paul, and the feast of All Saints" (CCC#2177b).

Saint Paul , January 25: The conversion of Paul was a turning point in the history of the early Church. Saul, as Paul was first known, was a tent- maker from Tarsus who zealously persecuted the followers of Christ. While travelling on the road to Damascus, he was struck down amidst a blinding light from heaven. According to accounts in Acts of the Apostles (9.1-22; 22.3-16; 26.12-18), a voice asked, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" Following the instructions he was given, Saul headed into Damascus and began proclaiming Jesus. Threatened with death for his actions, Paul escaped the city by being lowered in a basket over the city wall Paul's zeal for the risen Jesus led him to become a passionate follower and later a teacher of the nations. The letters, or epistles, of Paul offer us a window into the early Church.

Saint Thomas Aquinas, January 28: Thomas Aquinas had one of the greatest minds in the history of the Church. He born near Aquino, Italy, about 1225. From an early age he posed questions of great theological depth; his family sent him at the age of five to be educated by the Benedictines in Monte Cassino. While his family was pious, they did not approve when 19-year old Thomas joined the newly formed Dominicans, going so far as to imprison Thomas s in the family castle. Once released, he studied in Italy and Germany, where, ironically, man of his classmates named this great thinker "the dumb of ox" a name which prompted his teacher, Albert the Great, to proclaim: "We call him the dumb ox, but in his teaching he will one day produce such a bellowing that it will be heard throughout the world."

With Albert, he developed the theological Scholastic method, which dominated Catholic teaching for centuries. A prodigious writer, his most famous work is the Summa Theologica, one of the greatest examples of theological thought ever composed. Many of his hymn texts, such as Pange lingua, Tantum ergo and Adore te devote, are still used today.

A man of towering intellect, Thomas was also a humble mystic. He died in 1274, was canonized in 1323, and declared a Doctor of the Church in 1567. In 1880, he was proclaimed a patron saint of universities and schools.

Doing Bottle Drive again? “Yes” “Absolutely!”

My Dear Brothers and Sister in loving Christ,
One year ago, I called you all to support Joanne Hopkins by doing bottle drive and by giving donation to help her joining in World Youth Day, January 14-28, 2019, in Panama.

The actual amount raised from the bottle fundraising and donations are $3,000 (bottle fundraising $1,409.70 and the rest comes from other donors). We did successfully to support her. So, I would like to say thank you all who have prayed and supported our youth an amazing way. May God bless you always.

As we know, we collected from bottle drive one year $1,409.70. Many of us gave hands to support our youth. Now, I very continually encourage you to raise money from doing bottle drive to support our “Religious Education.”

All money which we will collect from you by doing bottle drive will spend for educational supplies, juice, cookies, and so on... So, please drop botte drive in our Parish’s welcome area!

Once again, thanks a lot and may God bless you.
